

Etat d'urgence (Urgency)

Song by JB Rosier & Richard Koechli

English Translation:

State of emergency - nothing but emergencies
Comfort, happiness and health - many differences
Everything's been crazy since you were born.
We take care of nothing, we ignore

The future is blurry, so it seems to me
Fire everywhere, my sixth sense tells me

State of emergency - nothing but emergencies
These people are crazy, murderers in power.
When will they finally realize that they're sitting smoking on a gas can

The future is blurry, so it seems to me
Fire everywhere, my sixth sense tells me

State of emergency - nothing but emergencies
Blind and deaf are the ones who lead the dance
Pampered, drunk with euphoria
Wake up, call a spade a spade

Fire everywhere, my sixth sense tells me
