

Of em gliche Grond shtah (standing on the same ground)

Song by Richard Koechli (Album „Parcours“)

English Translation:

Just having a look around
Leaving stress aside
Hugging each other
Listening and telling stories
No show, no force
Finding old pictures
Looking back together
Knowledge from where
Don't know where we're going
But there is a common ground
Mother is here
Father is here

So much learned
So much received
Fought back against it
Finally came back
On your own feet now
Have never thanked enough
It's time to give back
Just giving time
Drinking good wine together
Sharing your worries together
Standing on the same ground
Having common roots
Mother is here
Father is here
Everything is here
